

Our motto is dedicated solely to the Integrity and Professionalism of the Association and its Members. We achieve this by providing meetings and education opportunities to our members and all others responsible for the enforcement of the NC Building Codes and other requirements throughout the construction industry.

We support mandatory continuing education as required by the NC General Statutes and improving the Standard Certification Process of the Code Official. We provide opportunities for meetings throughout the State in addition to our Association's Annual Meeting.

- Become a member and be a part of an organization, which exists to represent and serve the code enforcement community dedicated to better code standards and enforcement.
- Providing education for code officials and others who are members at a reduced rate.
- Provide scholarships for the children of active members. Provide web links to nationally recognized standards and agencies.
- Oppose changes detrimental to the code enhancement process in North Carolina.
- Keep abreast of legislative issues that may affect our members and support those which are for the betterment of the code process.
- Work regionally, nationally and at the state level on code development issues.
- Be a part of NCBIA and be involved in many areas constantly trying to improve the code enforcement and development process in North Carolina.

All we need to complete our mission is YOU so why not join today.
